“You are the one who bakes the bappir in the big oven,
Puts in order the piles of hulled grains,
Ninkasi, you are the one who bakes the bappir in the big oven,
Puts in order the piles of hulled grains...

To let the filtering vat produce loud sounds,
You place it appropriately on a sublime collector vat.
Ninkasi, to let the filtering vat produce loud sounds,
You place it appropriately on a sublime collector vat.

When you pour out the filtered beer of the collector vat,
It is as though one were watching the Tigris and Euphrates.
Ninkasi, you are the one who pours out the filtered beer of the collector vat,
It is as though one were watching the Tigris and Euphrates.”
